ead: □□□We are pleased to announce that Microsoft and @PlayStation have signed &#1 27975; a binding agreement to keep Call of Duty on PlayStation following the ac quisition of Activision Blizzard. We look forward to 🏧 a future where p layers globally have more choice to play their favorite games.□□□ In the United States, the FTC had argued 🏧 the acquisition dea l would hurt consumers whether they played video games on consoles or had subscr iptions because Microsoft would have 🏧 an incentive to shut out rivals like Sony Group. However, Judge Jacqueline Scott Corley ruled on 11 June: □□□The FTC has & #127975; not shown it is likely to succeed on its assertion the combined firm w ill probably pull Call of Duty from 🏧 Sony PlayStation, or that its own ership of Activision content will substantially lessen competition in the video game library subscription and 🏧 cloud gaming markets.□□□ To address the FTC□□□s concerns, Microsoft had agreed to license Call of Duty to rivals, including a 10-year 🏧 contract with Nintendo, contingen t on the merger closing. On Sunday, Microsoft did not disclose the duration of the agreement wit h Sony.
