

cbet study guide

La, las are defined articles for the female gender. Un e unos are indefinite articles for the male gender. The articles are used to indicate the gender and number of the noun they precede. For example: La mesa (the table), Las sillas (the chairs), Un libro (a book), Dos perros (two dogs).

The article "un" is used for masculine nouns, and "una" is used for feminine nouns. The plural forms are "unos" for masculine and "unas" for feminine. The article "unos" is used for masculine nouns, and "unas" is used for feminine nouns. The article "unos" is used for masculine nouns, and "unas" is used for feminine nouns.

Mississippi (canção Pusycast) - Wikipedia: estado de Mississippi