Goalkeeper Mohammed El Shenawy was also a prime target for 💻 Senegal fans, who furiously shone their lasers when he was faced with a free-kick or for each penalty in the 💻 crucial shootout.Hamdi Fathi's own goal after just four minutes put Senegal in front on the night and levelled the score 💻 on aggregate after Egypt had taken a one-goal lead into the second leg at the Stade Me Abdoulaye Wade in 💻 Diamniadio. The score stayed that way until after extra time, with the sides then forced into another shootout just months 💻 after experiencing the same scenario in the Africa Cup of Nations final.Again it was Senegal who emerged the victors, after 💻 a nerve-wracking finale which started off with four missed spot kicks in a row. Even Salah could not tuck his 💻 effort away having been moved up Egypt's order after missing out on the opportunity to take one at AFCON, this 💻 time blazing his shot over after a host of lasers were shone in his direction in a bid to distract 💻 him. It clearly worked a treat.
