Introduction to handicap betting; Handicap betting is a type of betting where the odds are adjusted to level the playing field between two teams, especially when one team is considered stronger than the other. This type of betting is popular in sports like soccer, basketball, and tennis. It allows bettors to place bets on a team that is underdog, but with a handicap that gives them a chance to win. For example, if a team is given a -1.5 handicap, they must win by 2 goals to cover the bet. This type of betting is often used to attract bettors who want to bet on a team that is underdog, but with a handicap that gives them a chance to win.
