The Spanish brought the game to Mexico in the 18th Century, around 1769

. Initially

played by the elite, La Lotera Mexicana grew in popularity in The 19th and 20th Centuries

thanks to traveling fairs, known as Loteria Mexicana, and it became a national game played by people of all social classes. It is a game of chance, based on the probability of a specific event occurring.

The odds of winning are 1 in 10,000,000. The game is played with a wheel that has 10 sectors, each with a different number.

The player bets on a number, and the wheel is spun. The number that the wheel lands on determines the winner.
